5E LESSON PLAN: WEEK 12 – MISS PATTERSON

- Institution: Happy Grove High School
- Grade Level: Grade 8
- Class: 8^3
- Subject: English Literature
- Date: November 30, 2026
- Duration: 60 minutes
- NSC Learning Strand: Reading for Meaning and Enjoyment (Comprehension & Literature); Communication (Writing) – essay writing
- NSC Attainment Target: Respond to extract-based and essay questions on a novel and a poem under timed conditions, using command words, evidence and a clear structure.
- Topic: Exam Practice – Extract Questions (Identify, Illustrate, Comment) and a Timed Comparison Essay (End-of-Term Exam, Part D Question 6)
- Previous Knowledge: In Week 10, students mapped the plot on Freytag's Pyramid and wrote a PEE paragraph on how Sun-Sun changes. In Week 11, they learned the four-paragraph comparison essay and wrote the Part D essay on how Sun-Sun and the parents in "My Parents" treat their child.

Key Vocabulary

Key Vocabulary (word wall)

Identify: name or point out something from the text; no explanation needed

Illustrate: make a point clear by giving an example from the text

Comment: give your opinion or judgement, with reasons from the text

Discuss: give a full answer that looks at the topic closely, using examples from the text

Compare / Compare and contrast: show how two things are alike / show how they are alike and different

Mark allocation: the number in brackets [ ] that tells you how many marks, and so how many points, a question is worth

Timed writing: writing a full answer within a set time, as in the exam

Learning Objectives

By the end of the lesson:

Cognitive

1. After the Explain phase, students will match five command words (Identify, Illustrate, Comment, Discuss, Compare) to what each asks them to do, with at least four of five correct.
2. Under timed conditions, students will write a comparison essay of at least four paragraphs answering Part D Question 6, with one similarity and one difference supported by evidence from both texts.

Affective

3. During the group extract task, students will carry out their role-slip task, contributing at least one answer or piece of evidence.

Psychomotor

4. Using the practice extract, students will underline at least two phrases in pen that answer the Identify question.

Learning Domains

- Cognitive: Interpret command words; answer extract questions; write a timed comparison essay.
- Affective: Work cooperatively; manage nerves and time during timed writing.
- Psychomotor: Underline evidence in the extract; write the essay.

Learning Styles

- Visual: Exam-paper layout and command-word chart on PowerPoint and the whiteboard.
- Auditory: Group discussion of answers; teacher think-aloud.
- Kinaesthetic: Underlining evidence; timed writing.

Resources

- Exam-format chart (in Engage below)
- KWL charts (in Engage below)
- Class copies of My Father, Sun-Sun Johnson (Chapter 5, pp. 53–55), practice questions and group role slips (in Explore below)
- Command-word chart and time-per-mark table (in Explain below)
- Essay plan frame, the poem "My Parents", lined paper and a visible timer (in Elaborate below)
- Peer-review checklist, exit tickets and traffic-light slips (in Elaborate and Evaluate below)
- Completed sample essay for Question 6 (at the end of this plan)
- PowerPoint and whiteboard

NSC Major Objectives (Curriculum Alignment)

- Identify the elements of plot structure in a range of narrative pieces. (Communication (Writing) – Term 1, Unit 1). Checked by: Practice extract Question (c) (how the extract adds to the rising action).
- Determine a central idea of a text and analyse its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to supporting ideas. (Reading for Meaning and Enjoyment (Comprehension & Literature) – Term 1, Unit 1). Checked by: Practice extract Question (b) (a trait shown in the extract, with evidence).
- Compare and contrast the elements and authors of various literary genres (e.g. short story, novel, drama, fable, fantasy, biography, documentary, poetry, and science-fiction). (Reading for Meaning and Enjoyment (Comprehension & Literature) – Term 1, Unit 1). Checked by: Timed comparison essay (Part D Question 6).

A Communication (Writing) objective on essay writing can be added from the Grade 8 page of the curriculum book.

Instructional Strategies

- KWL Chart: Engage – what students know and want to know about the exam.
- Exam Walk-Through: Engage – the four parts of the paper and their marks.
- Cooperative Extract Practice with Role Slips: Explore – groups answer Part C-style questions on a new extract.
- Command-Word Instruction: Explain – what each command word asks for.
- Higher-Order Questioning: Explain – analyse, compare, evaluate and create questions.
- Timed Writing: Elaborate – the Part D essay under exam conditions.
- Differentiated Instruction: Elaborate – essay plan frame and extension task.
- Peer Assessment (Checklist, Star and Wish): Elaborate – partners check each other's essay.
- Traffic-Light Self-Assessment and Exit Ticket: Evaluate – readiness for the exam.

Subject Integration

- Guidance (Explain): Students discuss healthy ways to respond to teasing and being left out, as Rami and the speaker in the poem experience.
- Mathematics (Explain): Students work out how many minutes to spend on each part of the exam from the marks (100 marks in 90 minutes).

Classroom Organization and Management

- Classroom layout and safety: Desks are arranged in groups of four for the extract task, then in rows facing the front, spaced as in an exam, for the timed essay. Bags hang on the backs of chairs and walkways are kept clear so the teacher can reach every group.
- Materials: Cards, strips and worksheets are prepared in labelled envelopes before the lesson, so no time is lost handing them out.
- Group roles: For group tasks, each member receives a role slip (see the slips in the procedure) so every student knows exactly what to do and no one is left out.
- Transitions: The teacher uses the call-and-response "Class, class!" / "Yes, yes!" as an attention signal, and a visible timer shows how long each phase lasts.
- Positive reinforcement: Specific verbal praise, group points on the board, and good work displayed on the word wall.
- Expectations: Listen when others speak, respect every answer, share tasks fairly, and handle materials carefully.

Accommodations (Inclusion)

- Reading difficulties: Large-print cards and a reading partner; the teacher reads text aloud on request.
- Writing difficulties: Students may answer orally, point to the correct card, or have a peer scribe one answer.
- Attention or vision needs: Preferential seating near the board and the teacher.

- Absent students: Students who miss the lesson (for example, for sports) receive the notes and classwork as a catch-up pack.

Backup Plan (No Technology)

- If there is no electricity, internet or projector: The exam-format chart, command words and the timer are written on the whiteboard; practice questions, the plan frame and the checklist are printed, and the teacher keeps time with a watch.

5E PROCEDURE

1. ENGAGEMENT (5 minutes)

- Activating Prior Knowledge: The teacher asks: "What are the four parts of a comparison essay? Which linking words show a difference?" Students fill in the K and W columns of their KWL chart on the end-of-term exam.

KWL Chart: The End-of-Term Exam (one per student)

K – What I Know	W – What I Want to Know	L – What I Learned
e.g. Part D is an essay.	e.g. How long should I spend on the essay?	(Completed in Evaluate)

- Student Learning Activity: Students will look at the exam-format chart and say which part they feel most and least ready for.

The End-of-Term Exam (1 hour 30 minutes, 100 marks)

Part	What you do	Marks
A	Multiple choice on terms, poetry and the novel	20
B	Multiple choice on two poems; short answers on the novel	25
C	An extract from the novel: Identify, Illustrate, Comment; one Discuss paragraph	25
D	ONE comparison essay (choose Question 6 or 7)	30

- Teacher Facilitation: The teacher will show the chart and briefly explain each part. The teacher will ask:
- Which part is worth the most marks?
- In Part D, how many questions do you answer? (One.)
- Technology (in class): The exam-format chart is shown on a PowerPoint slide.
- Formative Check: Students hold up fingers to show how many parts are in the exam. (Four.)

(Visual & Auditory)

2. EXPLORATION (15 minutes)

- Student Learning Activity: Students will work in groups of four. They read the practice extract from Chapter 5, underline evidence in pen, and answer the three practice questions together, with the Recorder writing the group's answers.

Practice Extract: Chapter 5 ("To market, to market"), pp. 53–55

Students read from the class copy, from the moment Ma, Arlene and Brad arrive with Jake to Ma saying she will fight Father for her son. The novel is under copyright, so the passage is not reproduced here.

Practice Questions (in the style of exam Part C)

1. (a) Identify TWO phrases in the extract that show Ma's anger towards Rami. [2]
2. (b) Illustrate ONE trait of Ma shown in this extract. Name the trait, give evidence from the extract, and explain how the evidence shows the trait. [5]
3. (c) Comment on how this extract adds to the rising action of the novel. [6]

Group Role Slips (cut out; give one slip to each group member)

✂️ Reader Read the extract aloud to the group.	✂️ Evidence Finder Underline the phrases in pen that answer each question.
✂️ Recorder Write the group's answers in full sentences.	✂️ Reporter Share one answer with the class and explain how many marks it earns.

Teacher Answers: Practice Questions

(a) Any two, e.g. her eyes "blazed"; "You shameless thing"; "Just like your father"; she stamped her foot. (1 mark each.)

(b) Trait: proud or status-conscious (1). Evidence: she is ashamed to find her son selling goods on the ground at the market and calls him "shameless" (2). Explanation: she cares about how the family looks to others, so selling at a market feels like a disgrace to her (2).

(c) Ma appears with Jake, which hints at their relationship and leads to the wedding in Chapter 6 (2); she threatens to take Rami to court, which leads to the custody case in Chapter 8 (2); the conflict now involves the family as well as money, so the tension rises for Rami (2).

- Teacher Facilitation: The teacher will hand out the role slips, circulate, and remind groups to check the marks in brackets: 2 marks means two points.

- Formative Check: Reporters share answers; the class decides how many marks each answer would earn.
- Feedback: The teacher gives specific feedback, e.g. "You named a trait and gave a quote. For all 5 marks, explain how the quote shows she is proud."

(Kinaesthetic & Auditory)

3. EXPLANATION (8 minutes)

- Student Learning Activity: Students will copy the command-word chart and work out how long to spend on each part of the exam.

Command Words (students copy into notebooks)

Command word	What to do
Identify	Name or point out; short answer.
Illustrate	Give an example from the text to make the point clear.
Comment	Give your judgement with reasons from the text.
Discuss	Write a full answer looking at the topic closely, with examples.
Compare (and contrast)	Show how two things are alike (and different), with evidence from both.

- Subject Integration (Mathematics): Students work out the time for each part: 90 minutes ÷ 100 marks ≈ 1 minute per mark.

Time per Part (about 1 minute per mark)

Part	Marks	Suggested time
A	20	about 15 minutes
B	25	about 20 minutes
C	25	about 25 minutes
D	30	about 30 minutes

- Subject Integration (Guidance): The teacher asks how Rami and the speaker in the poem respond to teasing, and what healthy ways students can use to respond to being teased or left out.

Higher-Order Questions (whole-class discussion)

1. Analyse: Why does an Illustrate question need an example, but an Identify question does not?
2. Compare: How is the way Rami is treated by other children different from the way the speaker in the poem is treated?
3. Evaluate: Which part of the exam should you check most carefully at the end? Why?
4. Create: Write a thesis sentence for Part D Question 6.

Guide answers: Illustrate asks you to show the point with an example, while Identify only asks you to name it; Rami is jeered because of his father's failure, while the speaker is mocked for being different and kept apart by his parents; Part D, because it is worth the most marks; accept any thesis naming both texts and answering the question.

- Technology (in class): The command-word chart and the time table are shown on a PowerPoint slide.
- Formative Check: The teacher says a command word; students say what it asks for chorally.

(Visual & Auditory)

4. ELABORATION (25 minutes)

- Student Learning Activity: Students will answer Part D Question 6 under exam conditions: 5 minutes to plan, 17 minutes to write, then 3 minutes to swap and check a partner's essay with the checklist.

Timed Essay: End-of-Term Exam, Part D Question 6 (30 marks)

Compare the ways in which Rami in My Father, Sun-Sun Johnson and the speaker in "My Parents" are treated by other children. Discuss at least ONE similarity and ONE difference.

Write at least four paragraphs: introduction, similarity, difference, conclusion. Use evidence from BOTH texts.

Teacher Answers: Points Students May Use

Similarities: both are mocked and left out by other children; both are hurt but do not fight back at first (Rami: "I didn't answer. I didn't cry."; the speaker pretends to smile).

Differences: Rami is jeered because of his father's failure and loss of wealth ("Where's your saddle, old man?", Chapter 2), while the speaker is mocked for being different and is kept away from the rough children by his parents; Rami stays strong beside his father and later stands up to Brad (Chapter 7), while the speaker longs to forgive the children and join them.

- Differentiation Support: Supported students use the Week 11 essay plan frame and sentence starters and aim for three paragraphs.
- Differentiation Extension: Extended students add a second difference paragraph and finish with what both texts show about how children treat those who are different.

- Teacher Facilitation: The teacher will keep time on the whiteboard (plan 5 – write 17 – check 3), give a 5-minute warning, and walk around quietly without helping, as in the exam.
- Peer Assessment: Partners swap essays and tick the checklist below, then give one star and one wish.

Peer-Review Checklist (tick each box)

Does the essay…	Tick
name both texts and have a thesis in the introduction?	☐
give one similarity with evidence from the novel AND the poem?	☐
give one difference with evidence from the novel AND the poem?	☐
use at least three linking words?	☐
end with a conclusion that has no new evidence?	☐

Star: _____

Wish: _____

- Numeracy Link: Partners count the ticks and work out the score as a fraction of 5, e.g. 4 out of 5 = 80%.
- Feedback: The teacher gives specific feedback while collecting essays, e.g. "Your similarity is clear. In the exam, add a detail from the poem to your difference paragraph."

(Visual & Kinaesthetic)

5. EVALUATION (7 minutes)

- Student Learning Activity: Students will complete the exit ticket on their own, then fill in the L column of the KWL chart and the traffic-light self-assessment.
- Teacher Facilitation: The teacher will collect the essays and exit tickets, and read or display the sample essay at the end of this plan if time allows, or post it on Google Classroom.

Exit Ticket

1. How many marks is Part D worth, and about how long should you spend on it?
2. What does the command word "Illustrate" ask you to do?
3. Write one thing you will revise before the exam.

Teacher Answers: Exit Ticket

1. 30 marks; about 30 minutes. 2. Make a point clear by giving an example from the text. 3. Accept any relevant topic.

- Self-Assessment: Students tick one box for each statement.

Traffic-Light Self-Assessment (students tick one colour for each statement)

I can…	Green	Yellow	Red
answer Identify, Illustrate and Comment questions	☐	☐	☐
plan and write a comparison essay in time	☐	☐	☐
use evidence from both the novel and the poem	☐	☐	☐

Green = I can do this on my own. Yellow = I need a little more practice. Red = I need help.

- Closure: One student completes the sentence aloud: "In the exam, I will remember to…"
- Positive Reinforcement: The teacher praises students who finished on time and used evidence from both texts, and wishes the class well in the exam.

(Visual & Auditory)

Total: 5 + 15 + 8 + 25 + 7 = 60 minutes

Homework / Extension Assignment

Revision task: Read the sample essay posted on Google Classroom. Then rewrite one paragraph of your timed essay using your partner's wish. Revise the five plot stages, the command words and your notes on "The Wreck of the Hesperus", "Fog" and "My Parents".

Technology Integration (Homework & Practice)

- Google Classroom: Post the sample essay, the command-word chart and the exam-format chart for revision.
- Quizizz: Assign a revision quiz on literary terms, the two poems and the main events of the novel.

Assessment Summary

Type	What is assessed
Diagnostic	KWL chart (K and W); exam-format discussion.
Formative	Group extract answers with Reporter feedback; choral command-word check; timed essay with peer checklist.
Summative	Exit ticket; timed Part D essay (collected and marked with the exam rubric).

Success Criteria

Students are successful when they can answer Identify, Illustrate and Comment questions on an extract and write a four-paragraph comparison essay for Part D within the time allowed.

SAMPLE ESSAY (COMPLETED): PART D, QUESTION 6

For the teacher to read aloud, display or post after students have written their own essays. Marked against the exam rubric: a high-scoring answer.

Question 6

Compare the ways in which Rami in My Father, Sun-Sun Johnson and the speaker in "My Parents" are treated by other children. Discuss at least ONE similarity and ONE difference.

Sample Essay

Introduction

In the novel My Father, Sun-Sun Johnson by C. Everard Palmer and the poem "My Parents" by Stephen Spender, a boy is treated badly by other children. Both Rami and the speaker in the poem are mocked and left out. However, Rami is jeered because his father has lost his wealth, whereas the speaker is mocked because he is different and kept apart from the other children.

Similarity

One similarity is that both boys are teased and made to feel like outsiders. In Chapter 2, when Rami rides Marble into the schoolyard, the boys gather around him "to laugh" and shout, "Where's your saddle, old man?" Similarly, in "My Parents" the rough children throw "words like stones" and copy the speaker's lisp behind his back. In both texts the boys are hurt but do not fight back at first: Rami says, "I didn't answer. I didn't cry," and the speaker pretends to smile. This shows that both boys feel the pain of being mocked but try to hide it.

Difference 1

However, the reason each boy is mocked is different. Rami is jeered because he is living "in the shadow of his father's failure." The children laugh at him for being poor and for staying with Father. In contrast, the speaker in the poem is mocked because his parents keep him away from the rough children, so he seems different from them. This suggests that Rami is treated badly because he has lost his place in society, while the speaker is treated badly because he has never been allowed to join in.

Difference 2

The two boys also respond in different ways. Rami becomes stronger. He stays loyal to his father, and in Chapter 7, when Brad calls him "a fool to stay down in that hole," Rami tells him to go away. By the end of the novel he has earned respect as the man of the family. On the other hand, the speaker in the poem stays lonely. He longs to forgive the children and be their friend, but they never accept him. This shows that Rami grows through his hardship, while the speaker remains an outsider.

Conclusion

In conclusion, Rami and the speaker in "My Parents" are both mocked and left out by other children, and both try to hide their hurt. However, Rami is jeered because of his father's failure and grows stronger, whereas the speaker is mocked for being kept apart and stays lonely. Together, the two texts show how cruel children can be to someone who is different, and how a person can choose to rise above it.

Why This Essay Scores Well (teacher notes)

- Content (12): one clear similarity (both mocked and hiding their hurt) and two clear differences (the reason for the mocking; how each boy responds).
- Evidence (8): short quotations and details from both texts, with chapters for the novel, each followed by "This shows…" or "This suggests…".
- Organisation (6): introduction with a thesis, three body paragraphs and a conclusion; linking words: both, similarly, however, in contrast, on the other hand, in conclusion.
- Language (4): Standard Jamaican English, complete sentences, correct punctuation.
